

bride, in a gown of heavy white corded silk and a bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums, was a very charming picture. Following the supper a large reception was held, fully 300 guests being entertained during the evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums; palms and ferns with the more delicate sprays of smilax and asparagus vines. Delightful music was furnished by Prof. Wellenstein's orchestra. One of the pleasant features of the occasion was the attendance of a number of the bride's newly wedded friends, each of whom wore her wedding gown. Among them were Messrs. W. L. McKay, Edgar Huntington, Fred K. Tinkham, Frank B. Forbush and Mrs. Herbert Stebbins of Boston, recently a bride. The out of town guests were Mrs. Stebbins, mother of the groom, John Stebbins, uncle of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stebbins, Miss Susan Blanchard and Charles Garrison, all of Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mulliken, of Detroit. There were many beautiful gifts among which were a chest of silver, quantities of silver in addition, cut glass, China, bric-a-brac, and a large number of etchings, pastels, oil and water colors. There were substantial presents of furniture, and among the more substantial gifts were several cheques. The room where the presents were displayed was thronged with long sprays of English ivy. Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins left on the 11 o'clock train for the east and will visit Washington, Old Point Comfort, New York and other cities before going to their home at Newton, a suburb of Boston. They will be at home to their friends at Newton, December 7.

Notes From the St. Cecilia.

The stage and auditorium of the Ladies' Literary club-house was very prettily decorated with American flags and the Spanish colors Friday in honor of Columbus day, by the members of the St. Cecilia society. There was a large attendance. The program was devoted to modern composers and was as follows:

Piano.	Waltz.	Kargnelt
Violin.	Mazurka.	Bohm
Song.	"Storm and Sunshine."	Dudley Buck
Reading.	Maria Irena.
Song.	"The Lady of the Lake."	Brook
Violin.	Romance.	Jean Becker
Song.	Lullaby.	Dennie
Piano.	"The Lady of the Lake."	Brook
Piano.	"The Lady of the Lake."	Brook

The different divisions and tens of the society are busy with entertainments and two are announced for this week.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Twenty No. 5 will give a musical at the residence of Mrs. F. M. Davis, No. 532 Cherry street, under the auspices of the St. Cecilia society. This will be the only time Miss Carpenter will sing in public, as she will go to New York soon to sing in grand opera. Wednesday evening Division No. 15 will give a "coffee" to which members are especially invited. It will be held at the residence of F. E. Remington, No. 125 Washington street, Miss Lena Remington being a member of the division. The hours are from 7:30 to 10:30 and a pleasant evening is promised.

Mrs. E. H. Stevens, treasurer of the St. Cecilia society, held at the club rooms Thursday next from 2 until 4 o'clock for the purpose of renewing membership tickets. She will be at her home, No. 230 South Division street, all day Tuesday for the same purpose.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Perry F. Schurts gave a coffee at her home, No. 227 Cherry street, under the auspices of Twenty No. 16. About 100 guests were entertained and a neat sum was realized for the building fund.

Division No. 4 of the St. Cecilia's will give an art exhibition Tuesday afternoon from 2 until 5, at which the collection of Col. Briggs' paintings will be shown at the residence, No. 186 Ottawa street.

Hazel Claire's Birthday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ford, of No. 405 Crescent avenue, gave a party Saturday afternoon in honor of the 8th anniversary of their daughter Hazel Claire. Miss Nellie Ford presided at the piano. The afternoon and evening was spent in games, dances and fairy dances.

Those present were: Beanie Bowring, Emma Hancock, Grace Krum, Amy Hirth, Mabel Spencer, Lillie Haggerty, Mildred Haggerty, Elmo Hubbard, Roy Freeman, Jennie Henry, Linnie Cross.

Complimentary Dinner. Mrs. J. H. Wonderly and Miss Wonderly gave a dinner at the home of Mrs. Edward Lowe and Mrs. Roy Stanley Barnhart. The hour was 7 o'clock and covers were laid for twelve. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley Barnhart, Miss Mabel Waters, Mrs. Helen Shepard and Messrs. Jas. Crosby, John Blodgett, Ben C. Robinson and Dr. Richard Smith. The drawing room was canvassed and dancing was enjoyed during the evening.

Her Fifteenth Birthday. Mrs. Lydia M. Thomas, of Oakdale Park, was happily surprised on Monday evening by a large company of neighbors and friends, who invaded her home to remind her of her fifteenth birthday. Frank B. Woolston, in a little speech, presented her with a handsome rocker as a token of esteem. After light refreshments the evening was spent with cards and music, everybody wishing her many anniversaries to come.

Mrs. Johnston's Reception. The reception given by Mrs. Collins Johnston Friday afternoon at her home, No. 247 Jefferson avenue, from 4 to 6 o'clock, was a pleasant affair. It was attended by nearly 200 persons. Mrs. Johnston was assisted in receiving by Messrs. J. Brewster Hubbs, Jacob Kleinhaus and Misses Addie and Cody. It being Columbus day, the decorations were in harmony with the event. A large and beautiful silk flag was entwined about the alcove in the hall, under which Miss Maude Hughes sat with her harp. The chandeliers were trimmed with red, white and blue ribbons and smilax and roses. A delicate luncheon was served to the guests and the coffee was served by Mrs. F. C. Stratton.

Marguerite Social Club. One of the pleasantest events of the season was the party given by the M. S. C. last Wednesday evening at Custer Guard armory. About fifty couples were in attendance. The members of the club received many congratulations upon the success of their first party. The grand march which was led by Miss Nina Meach and Frank Idema was one of the delightful features of the evening. Messrs. Matheson, Sinclair, Hopkins, Idema and LeClear composed the committee having in charge the hall decorations. The music was furnished by Braun's orchestra. The club intends giving its second hop some time during the holidays.

Pretty Birthday Party. In honor of her fourth birthday Miss Anna Isabelle Hunt entertained her friends last Tuesday at her home on Park avenue. The little ones came at 3 o'clock, bringing dainty gifts of chocolate cups, spoons, flowers, dolls and books. They played games until five, when supper was served, after which the wee ones went home, carrying with them many favors. Among those honored were Mable and Ruth Bernard, Ira Dryden, Grace Morton, Hazel Appleth, Anna Whitcomb, Lotta Smith, Clara Coleman, Roy Donnelly and Howard Baxter.

Eighth Ward Pedro Club. Mrs. Werner and Mrs. H. Ed Robinson entertained the Eighth Ward Neighborhood Pedro club and a number of guests on Thursday evening. Beautiful autumn leaves and vines were artistically arranged in all the rooms. The refreshments were dainty and served in good form. The prizes were much admired and were won by Mrs. T. W. Strahan, Mrs. Henry Bennett, Miss Root and Frank Werner.

Pleasantly Surprised. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Leonard, of No. 113 Eleventh street, were pleasantly surprised last Wednesday evening by a few of their many friends, who came to assist in celebrating their tin wedding. A large number of choice presents were received and a very enjoyable evening passed.

Artists' Meeting. An enthusiastic meeting of the Art association was held Tuesday evening at the Cullen's studio. The members are looking forward with a good deal of interest to the next meeting, when the compositions for the month will be handed in.

Venison Steaks and Game. The advance of the game season always finds Detroiters, the fish and game merchant, well supplied in every palatable and delicate morsel that flies or swims. Just now his market front presents an array of venison that suggests many a toothsome repast.

Inside, venison steaks are displayed in profusion. The game display consists of duck, snipe, plover, quail, woodcock and partridge. Detroiters enjoy special facilities for collecting these delicacies fresh from their covers every day. The fish supply comprises every food fish known to fresh and salt water. Brook trout, lake trout, salmon, mackerel, lobster, eel, pike, pickerel, bass, perch and whitefish, are always to be found on his counters.

Detroiters make a special order on oysters in their season. He is agent for the famous Anchor brand, and can supply them in large or small quantities to suit the customer. He enjoys a large wholesale trade in these delicacies. His line of spring chickens and ducks, and all tame fowls, is always full.

Young Men's McKinley Club. Young Men's McKinley club will meet Monday evening, at 7:30 at Lincoln club rooms.

STILL AS LARGE AS EVER.

The Clothing Sale at the Star. Bargains That Are Unparalleled Are Given.

Although the Star Clothing House has done a larger business since they started this sale of clothing bought at nearly 50c on the dollar than that Chicago firm, their stock looks as large as ever. They state that it was more than they had any idea of. They said certain goods were called for more than others; for instance, Prince Albert worsted coats and vests worth $15 for $7.50, and the Clay worsted, single-breasted coats and vests for $10 worth $5, and other styles. They still have some of these left; also the boys' all-wool $2 suits, as well as the $3 Scotch cashmere suits worth $5, and the boys' grey suits and overcoats for $1 worth $2, and the line of cashmere pants for $3.50 worth $5, and the heavy overcoats, all wool, for $15, worth $18, and other great bargains. Come in soon if you want bargains.

Attention. Next Wednesday evening Mr. Fred A. Maynard, one of Grand Rapids' ablest speakers, will address the Eleventh Ward Union at 10 o'clock in White's hall on Madison avenue. Ladies are again especially welcome. Spirited campaign songs will be sung by a splendid quartet. Let everybody come to hear speaker and singers.

Abraham Lincoln. When leaving his home at Springfield, Ill., to be inaugurated as president of the United States, made a farewell address to his old friends and neighbors, in which he said, "Neighbors, give your boys a chance."

These words came with as much force today as they did thirty years ago. "How give them this chance?" Up in the northwest is a great empire waiting for young and sturdy fellows to come and develop it and "grow up with the country." All over this broad land are the young fellows, the boys that Lincoln referred to, seeking to better their condition and get on in life.

Here is their chance. The country referred to lies along the Northern Pacific railroad. Here you can find pretty much anything you want. In Minnesota, and in the Red river valley of North Dakota, the finest of prairie lands fitted for wheat and grain, or as well for diversified farming. In Western North Dakota and Montana are stock ranges limitless in extent, clothed with the most nutritious of a fruit farming region is wanted, there is the whole state of Washington to select from.

As for scenic delights, the Northern Pacific railroad passes through a country unparalleled. In crossing the Rocky, Rattlefoot and Cascade mountains the greatest scenery to be seen in the United States from car windows is found. The wonderful bad lands, wonderful in graceful form and glowing color, are a poem. Lakes Pend d'Oreille and Coueur d'Alene are alone worthy of a transcontinental trip, while they are the "herons" Ultima Thule. The ride along Clark's Fork of the Columbia river is a daylight dream. To cap the climax, this is the only way to reach the far famed Yellowstone Park.

Reach and see all this the Northern Pacific railroad journey trains and service of unsurpassed excellence. The most approved and comfortable palace sleeping cars; the best dining cars that can be made; Pullman tourist cars good for both first and second class passengers; easy riding day coaches, with baggage express and postal cars, all drawn by powerful Baldwin locomotives, make a train fit for royalty itself.

Those seeking for new homes should take this train and go and spy out the land. To be prepared, write to CHAS. F. FEE, G. P. & T. Co., St. Paul, Minn.
